

1086

The Domesday Book

Pachstone is recorded as a large and important settlement of 69 households (probably 240-350 people). Houses are spaced along Church Lane, Adams Lane, the High Street and London Lane. It belongs to the Countess Judith, William the Conquerors niece.

Monarch: William I
- The Conqueror
England: 1.7 million
934 years ago