

1808

Annie Izzard the Great Paxton Witch.

Annie Izzard, who lived with her family in a house along the spinney, is accused of witchcraft by villagers and attacked. Annie is given support from Rev. Nicholson (his grave is in the church). Her tormentors are tried at Huntingdon and then London before being imprisoned.

Gt.P. population 217 in 36 households, half are in receipt of charity.
212 years ago